

Featured Alumna Jennifer Cathcart '99

If UT Arlington had Alumni Cheerleaders, Jennifer Cathcart would be the captain of the squad. She is an outspoken ambassador for the University and the Alumni Association.

Jennifer is an active volunteer with UT Arlington. As an alumna, she is a leadership presenter at the annual UT Arlington Leadership Retreat empowering Maverick leaders. She has served on the Alumni Association Board of Directors since 2005 and is now the current Vice President of Special Events. She is also a mentor for current UT Arlington students through the Student Alumni Association mentoring program.

Jennifer graduated in 1999 from UT Arlington with her B.A. in Journalism. She is a licensed realtor for Sunny Graham Realty.

Featured UT Arlington Academics College of Liberal Arts

The College of Liberal Arts unites four disciplinary directions: the visual and performing arts, communication and languages, humanities, and social sciences. It includes almost 20% of UTA's 25,000 undergraduate and graduate student majors.

A new award in the College of Liberal Arts exemplifies achievements in both research and teaching. The Alicia Wilkerson Smotherman Faculty Award, made possible through the generosity of Thad Smotherman, recognizes faculty whose research expertise and teaching abilities have inspired students to create work of exceptional merit which goes beyond the ordinary expectations for class assignments. and Dr. John Stickels (Criminology and Criminal Justice).

UT Arlington is Going Green!

The University of Texas at Arlington has launched its new sustainability Website: a one-stop shop for all the latest information on sustainability projects and environmental events on campus and elsewhere, and an on-going resource listing. Check it out at <http://www.uta.edu/sustainability>.

The Link UT Arlington's International Friendship Program

The Link matches International Students at UTA with community members/families who want to be friends with an international student. It's a great way to learn about new cultures and share your own! Some activities might include having conversations over coffee or tea, going grocery shopping and preparing dishes from each other's cultures, celebrating a birthday or holiday or attending a local festival, museum or film.
