Advising Contract

Student Responsibilities

- Understand and communicate personal values, abilities, and goals.
- Provide accurate and truthful information when being advised.
- Schedule and keep appointments or call if it is necessary to change or cancel an appointment.
- Learn and understand UTA's policies, procedures, and requirements.
- Know where to locate, read and understand the Undergraduate Catalog: <http://www3.uta.edu/catalog/>
- Come prepared to advising sessions: have a prepared list of classes you are considering, schedule of classes, the most recent copy of your tentative or official degree plan, an unofficial transcript if requested, a list of questions about resources or concerns you may have, materials gathered from a plan-of-action from a previous appointment, and keep a folder with these materials all together for easy access.
- Be open to the new possibilities that the advisor may suggest. Follow through on plans-of-action identified during advising sessions.
- Understand and accept that students are ultimately responsible for their education and their own decisions!

Advisor Responsibilities

- Inform students of the nature of the advisor/advisee relationship.
- Develop a purposeful relationship with advisees.
- Provide contact information and posted office hours.
- Keep appointments or call if it is necessary to change or cancel an appointment.
- Inform inquiring students of campus resources and special services available to them.
- Assist students in defining and developing desired educational, career, and life plans.
- Assist students in preparing a program that is consistent with their abilities and interests.
- Monitor progress toward educational/career goals.
- Listen and help develop a realistic plan-of-action to meet student goals.
- Interpret and provide rationale for institutional policies, procedures, and requirements.
- Refer students when attitudinal, attendance, or personal problems require intervention by other professionals.

I have read and understand the content of this contract, and will uphold all of my responsibilities as outlined.
