“Fort Worth, TX-based accounting firm AuldridgeGriffin today welcomes new team members and congratulates a staffer who received his CPA license.”

For Immediate Release:

Fort Worth-based accounting firm AuldridgeGriffin PC today welcomes Kenneth Sanders, CPA, John Stanbery, CPA, and Jennifer Moseley, CPA, as its newest team members. Ryan Bolton, who has been with the firm since 2002, also became licensed as a certified public accountant.

Sanders, a partner in the firm, brings more than 25 years of accounting and financial experience to the firm's audit practice. He was formerly a partner with international accounting firm KPMG LLP and most recently was the chief financial officer and executive vice president of strategic and financial planning for SportsLine.com, Inc., where he led both the company's IPO and subsequent sale to CBS Corporation. He graduated magna cum laude from the University of Texas at Arlington with a bachelor's degree in accounting.

Stanbery, also a partner, has been a CPA in Texas for more than 20 years and graduated from the University of Texas at Arlington with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He spent 12 years with Merrill Lynch before returning to full-time public accounting. Stanbery is a past president of the Fort Worth Chapter of CPAs.

Moseley, who brings 13 years of experience in real estate and private equity accounting, joins AuldridgeGriffin from Crescent Real Estate and Crestline Capital Group where she held management positions for eight years. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in accounting control systems from the University of North Texas and began her professional career with a four-year stint at KPMG LLP.

Bolton joined AuldridgeGriffin after graduating cum laude with both a bachelor's and a master's degree in accounting from Angelo State University. His service areas of expertise include audit, tax and general accounting for clients in a variety of industries. Bolton works out of the firm's Cleburne office.

Earlier this year, AuldridgeGriffin was ranked as the eleventh-largest accounting firm in Tarrant County by the Fort Worth Business Press. With four new certified public accountants on staff, the firm is poised for continued growth despite the nation's current economic climate.

“In addition to the other services we provide, our clients rely on our counsel when it comes to business success, especially when things start to slow down,” said Jack Auldridge, founding partner of AuldridgeGriffin. “Our firm is growing not only because we provide services people need regardless of the state of the economy, but also because there is a distinct need for sound financial advice – a service we're proud to offer.”
