Command and looked after the operations of United States Armed Forces in a 25-country region, which was comprised of the Middle East. Tommy Franks was considered as the U.S. general who lead to the attack on the Taliban in Afghanistan as a reaction for the September 11, 2001 Terrorist Attack that was made on the World Trade Center as well as The Pentagon.

He also had made contribution in the 2003 invasion of Iraq as well as defeat of Saddam Hussein. He happened to be the adopted kid of Ray and Lorene "Pete" Parker Franks. He did his graduation from Robert E. Lee High School that is based in Midland, Texas. Tommy Franks also did his studies from the University of Texas at Austin and attended the Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

He got enlistment in the Army in the year 1965 and got trained at basic level at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Tommy Franks also got trained at cryptologic analyst situated at Fort Devens, Massachusetts. He also got assignment to the US 9th Infantry Division, Republic of Vietnam and it was here that he provided services as Aerial Observer, Forward Observer, 4th Field Artillery as well as Assistant S-3 with 2nd Battalion.

Tommy Franks also led to the commanding of a cannon battery in the Artillery Training Center in Fort Sill in 1968. His selection was made to take part in the "Boot Strap Degree Completion Program" of the Army and further also did graduation with a degree in Business Administration from the University of Texas at Arlington in 1971.

Tommy Franks also worked as an Army Inspector General in the Investigations Division in The Pentagon. He also got hold of a number of awards that are comprised of Distinguished Service Medal, Defense Distinguished Service Medal, two oak leaf clusters and many more. Tommy Franks
