Princeton, NJ — The Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA) is pleased to announce the election of Joe McLaughlin, CPA, CCIFP, as its 2018-19 Executive Chairman.

“I am honored to represent CFMA as Chairman this year,” says Mr. McLaughlin. “Along with the other officers, I am committed to providing outstanding leadership for CFMA as we continue to grow by delivering exceptional value for our members and stakeholders. I believe in CFMA as the foundation for success for our membership, and look forward to giving back to the association and to the industry as Chairman.”

Stuart Binstock, CFMA’s President and CEO, said, “Joe has been an active member of CFMA for nearly 15 years. His passion for the industry, financial expertise, and peer connections have proven beneficial to CFMA. I look forward to working with Joe this year in his new role.”

Mr. McLaughlin is the Chief Financial Officer at Austin Industries, Inc., a GC in Dallas, TX, that provides a variety of civil, commercial, and industrial construction and maintenance services. A member of CFMA since 2005, Joe previously served as CFMA’s Vice Chairman. Joe has also participated as chairman and member on several CFMA committees and task forces, including a three-year term on the Executive Committee. Locally, Joe serves on the Past President’s Committee of the CFMA Dallas/Fort Worth Chapter. He previously served two terms as chapter president, served as an officer and committee chairman, and taught The Basics of Construction Accounting course. He is an alumnus of both CFMA’s Mentoring Program and CFMA at Spring Creek. Joe holds a bachelor’s degree in accounting and an Executive MBA from the University of Texas at Arlington.
