

PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERING REVIEW

PRACTICES AND PRINCIPLES EXAMINATION IN CIVIL ENGINEERING

FALL 2011

The Civil Engineering Department at The University of Texas at Arlington is pleased to offer review classes for the fall 2011 Professional Engineering exam in civil engineering. The course is designed to help participants focus on vital areas and enhance their preparation for the exam. If you live in the Metroplex or nearby area, have passed the FE exam, and would like to maximize your chance for success in passing the exam, this course is for you.

- The course is offered on six Saturdays, with different topics offered each week.
- The last course is offered the Saturday prior to the PE exam.
- Notes will be provided.
- A 10% discount is offered to those registering prior to September 1st, 2011, but there is no late registration fee.
- Historically, the pass rate for those who have taken the UTA CE review course is 20 – 30 per cent higher than OF all other civil engineering test takers.
- Professional Publications, Inc. offers a 15% discount on texts.

FEES:

The $850 registration fee covers all sessions and includes the cost of the notes. "Early Birds," who enroll for the fall session prior to September 1, are eligible for a 10% discount, making their fee $765. There is no late registration fee. Optional texts from Professional Publications, Inc. are available from PPI, with a 15% discount.

Though every effort is made to adhere to the schedule, unforeseen events may require revisions. If changes become necessary, class participants will be notified as soon as possible. In the event of low enrollment making it impractical to offer the course, a full refund of the registration fee will be made in a timely manner.

LOCATION:

The University of Texas at Arlington (UTA) is conveniently located at the heart of the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. Unless participants are notified otherwise, classes will be conducted in Room 203 of Nedderman Hall.

REGISTRATION FORM

$765 prior to September 1st, $850 from September 1st until classes begin on September 10th.
