

Thursday, October 19, 2017

Construction Research Center at UTA is offering a Free Industry Presentation on

Special Inspections Revisited/Updates

University of Texas @ Arlington
College of Architecture, Planning and Public Affairs - 2nd Floor - Room 204

Time: 2:15PM - 4:15PM

FREE INDUSTRY PRESENTATION FREE**

Special Inspections Presentation followed by a

Panel of Industry Professionals - Open forum with the audience

Questions, Answers and Discussions

A re-look at the reasons and logic for code required special inspections, structural observations and discussion on those construction elements that need special inspections. Typical jurisdictional requirements and responsibilities of Contractors, Design Professionals, Architects, Engineers, and Building Officials.

2.0 Hr. CE Credit / .20 CE Units

Moderator: Alexis Clark, Structural Field Engineer, Hilti North America

Panel Discussion: Lawrence Crow - Field Operations Manager, City of Irving
Ed Dryden - Assistant Building Official, City of Dallas
Ben Harris - Huckabee Architects
Jerry Kunkel - Jerald W. Kunkel Consulting Engrs.
Michael Lee - WJE Engineers
Selso Mata - Building Official, City of Plano
Richard Schellhammer - Underwood Law
Bryan Sy - PSI Engineers Inc.

University of Texas at Arlington - Construction Research Center

Seating is limited - first come first serve - register now.

Email: crc@uta.edu now to confirm your registration and receive parking link.

Parking is $2.50 - Map will be provided

Questions? Call: 817-272-3701