To Whom It May Concern,

The University of Texas at Arlington's chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, an International Honor Society in Education, has been a supporter of literacy programs and awareness in the community for many years. Kappa Delta Pi has supported the local community through book drives, bake sales and other fundraisers.

On April 15th, 2012 Kappa Delta Pi will be holding its 6th annual Bowling for Education tournament benefitting Cook Children's Medical Center of Fort Worth. The proceeds collected from tournament participants, business sponsorships and personal donations will fund efforts to provide the school at Cook Children's with supplies and equipment they desperately need.

The Fort Worth ISD Classroom at Cook Children's provides school services for approximately 100 – 120 children, grades K – 12, each year. These school services have been offered for over 20 years with patients either coming to the classroom for lessons or the teacher going to the patient's bedside, depending upon the status of their illness or injury. Three teachers and one teacher's aide make up the staff of the classroom, and all have a special gift for working with these children.

Our previous donations to Cook Children's in the last 5 years, totaling just under $10,000, have helped the classroom buy new computers and educational software, as well as other necessary supplies, for the students.

Kappa Delta Pi would like to give you the opportunity to help 'strike up' support for Cook Children's either through a monetary or raffle donation to Bowling for Education. Monetary contributions will go directly to the donation given to Cook Children's. Gift certificates or other items/services provided by your business will be used in a raffle at the bowling tournament, the proceeds of which will be included in the donation to the hospital. Any size contribution is much appreciated.

If you wish to support Cook Children's, please review the enclosed Sponsorship Levels form and complete the enclosed Donation Form. You may either give your Donation Form and contribution to the Kappa Delta Pi member contacting you or mail them to Teaira Little, Kappa Delta Pi counselor, at the address below:
