UT Arlington Department of Kinesiology

Public Health Classes

KINE 2350 Public Health: Principles & Populations
What is Public Health?
How Does it Work & Why is it Important?

KINE 3350 Urbanization & Vulnerable Populations
How Does Diversity Influence the Health of a Community?

KINE 3351 Public Health Informatics
How Can Information Technology Be Used for Public Health?

KINE 3352 Intro to Public Health Epidemiology
How Does Public Health & Science Protect the Community from Disease & Epidemics?

KINE 3353 Health & The Human Condition in the Global Community
How has Public Health Changed Over Time?
What are the Current Issues?

KINE 4330 Program Design & Administration
Requires 60 credits or more for registration.
How Do You Develop and Operate Health and Wellness Programs?

Cross-Disciplinary Classes
For those interested in pursuing the B.S. in Public Health*

HEED 3305 Women's Health Issues

HEED 4320 Studies in Healthy Aging
Requires 60 credits or more for registration

AAST 4326 Diversity in Organizations
Requires 60 credits or more for registration

Contact Your Academic Advisor for Course Schedule Assistance and Degree Plan Information.

QUESTIONS?
Contact us at publichealth@uta.edu
Twitter and Facebook: @UTAPublicHealth

* The B.S. in Public Health is currently pending final approval.