

ENTRY POINT!

ENTRY POINT!, a program of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), offers outstanding internship opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students with disabilities in science, engineering, mathematics, computer science, and some fields of business.

AAAS has developed unique partnerships with IBM, NASA, Merck, Google, Lockheed Martin, NAVAIR, Infosys, and several university science laboratories to place students with disabilities in 10-week paid summer internships around the country. Most students relocate for the summer.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

---

To be considered for an internship, successful applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Full-time student enrolled in an accredited institution
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Major in science, engineering, mathematics, computer science, or business
- Documented physical or non-apparent disability*
- At least one semester remaining after internship
- U.S. citizen

* AAAS does not disclose information about disability to partners without permission from the student. Students needing accommodations for an interview and/or internship placement will work with the partner and AAAS to make the necessary arrangements.

WHAT AN ENTRY POINT! INTERNSHIP OFFERS

---

- Paid positions in areas that complement your major and enhance your skills
- Travel allowance may be offered
- Assistive technology as needed
- Assistance in locating accessible housing and transportation
- AAAS support with application process, throughout internship session, and beyond
- Competitive job assignments that allow you to "test drive" your career choice
- Mentoring
- Opportunities for successive internships, co-ops, and research opportunities

APPLICATION & INTERVIEW INFORMATION

---

Additional information about Entry Point! and an online application are available at www.entrypoint.org. Once you have filled out your application, contact Betty Kain (kainbetty@yahoo.com) to schedule a phone interview.