

Minoring in English

The English Department offers three minors. An English literature minor may be achieved by completing eighteen hours in English with a grade of C or better. At least six of the hours must be on the 3000- or 4000-level.

In addition to this minor, English also offers a minor in Writing and a minor in Creative Writing.

Option for Minor in Writing

The Writing minor is offered for students who wish to concentrate in writing as a part of their undergraduate curriculum. Students selecting the Writing minor should consult first with the undergraduate advisor in their department or program for approval of the minor, and then with the English department undergraduate advisor. Working with advisors, students will select a sequence of advanced courses to fulfill their minor requirements. To count toward the minor, all English courses must be completed with a grade of C or better. This minor consists of 21 hours, distributed as follows.

ENGL 1301 (3 hours)

ENGL 1302 (3 hours)

3 hours of sophomore literature chosen from the following: ENGL 2303, 2309, 2319, 2329

English 3371 (3 hours)

Nine hours of 3000-4000 level writing courses chosen from the following: ENGL 3372, ENGL 3373, ENGL 3374, ENGL 3376, ENGL 4371, ENGL 4374.

Option for Minor in Creative Writing

The Creative Writing minor is offered for students wishing to do intensive work in creative writing to supplement an English major or another major. Students selecting the Creative Writing minor should consult first with the undergraduate advisor in their department or program for approval of the minor, and then with the English department undergraduate advisor. Working with advisors, students will select a sequence of advanced courses to fulfill their minor requirements. To count toward the minor, all English courses must be completed with a grade of C or better. This minor requires 24 hours, distributed as follows.
