

Assessment Based Improvement Report
Department(Unit): Information Systems & Operations Management
College (Division): Dean - College of Business Administration

Assessment Result from UEP that Indicated Need for Improvement	Improvements Implemented	Semester
1. Administration currently collecting requirements for system and course prerequisites. 2. Faculty curriculum and competency review found that some undergraduate courses were not relevant with industry trends. 3. Former students recommended newer technologies and more stress on analysis and design and enforcement of stricter curriculum. In addition, concern was expressed over lack of help with job searching. 4. Faculty curriculum and competency review found that some graduate courses were not relevant with industry trends. 5. Former graduate students recommended revising curriculum to meet industry concerns of outsourcing and security. Faculty will review and update curriculum where appropriate.	1. Department has reviewed all prerequisites for all courses offered and will submit this information by December, 2004. System will go live in Fall 2006. 2. Faculty reviewed and updated undergraduate curriculum and submitted catalog changes. Changes submitted for Fall 2004 faculty committee meeting. New/updated course competencies were developed to reflect curriculum changes. Catalog changes effective Fall 2005 3. Course competencies were reviewed to incorporate project/teamwork where applicable. Two new courses, Fundamentals of Security and Advanced Networking have been defined. A networking lab proposal was written. Departmental website has been modified to include a jobs listing page for current and alumni students. Department website established for departmental newsletter mail list. Competencies reviewed Fall 2004 Website updated Fall 2004 Security course added Fall 2004 Advanced Networking course to be added Spring 2006 4. Faculty reviewed and updated graduate curriculum and submitted catalog changes. Changes submitted for Fall 2004 faculty committee meeting. New/updated course competencies were developed to reflect curriculum changes. New/updated course competencies were developed to reflect curriculum changes. Catalog changes effective Fall 2005 5. Course competencies were reviewed to potentially address these concerns. Three new courses, Principles of Information Security, Advanced Networking, and Project Management have been defined. Principles of Information Security Fall 2004, Advanced Networking Spring 2006, Project Management Fall 2005	Fall-2004

Click here to go back to Options Screen