

Extended Call for Papers
The 22nd Annual University of Texas at Arlington
Student Conference in Linguistics and TESOL

February 19th and 20th 2015

Extended Submission Deadline: 7 December 2014

Conference & Presentation Details

Papers for this conference are invited in all areas of linguistics and TESOL. Students from any educational institution are strongly encouraged to submit their research and share their discoveries in the field. Presenters can choose between oral and poster presentations. Oral presentations will last 20 minutes with 5 minutes for discussion and questions. An allotment of time will be set aside for poster presentations and discussion. Poster and oral presentations are considered, accepted, and judged as equal counterparts, and the best presentations will be awarded the Yumi Nakamura Memorial Prize in Linguistics, which is a cash prize.

The University of Texas at Arlington (UTA) is located in Arlington, Texas, situated between Dallas and Fort Worth. Arlington is easily accessible by two major airports: DFW and Love Field. Discounted hotels in Arlington will be available for the conference, and some limited space will be available to stay with students on a first come, first served basis.

Abstract Requirements and Details

The extended deadline for submission is Sunday, December 7, 2014, at 11:59 p.m. Notification of acceptance will be distributed in December of 2014. Abstracts should be a single page of 500 words in at least 12-point font, with one additional page allowed for graphs and/or references. Electronic submissions are required and should be emailed to juliet.huynh@mavs.uta.edu. Please include your name, contact email, and university affiliation in your submission email.
