

Workshop on "Nonparametric Statistics, Refined, Redefined, and Renewed"
Arlington, Texas, April 16-17, 2009

Special Issue of Journal of Nonparametric Statistics

JNPS will devote a special issue to papers inspired from this workshop.

The special issue:

- will not be a Proceedings volume
- will serve as a venue for workshop speakers and participants to publish their papers in a special-themed issue of the journal
- will go through a normal screening and review process for publication
- window of submission: April 16-July 15, 2009
- submission instructions: <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/gnst>

This special issue will be edited by Professor Suojin Wang and Co-Guest Editors Professors Edgar Brunner, Madan Puri and Robert Serfling. Please send preliminary inquiries to Professor Wang (sjwang@stat.tamu.edu), Executive Editor of the JNPS, or the Journal's Editorial Office (jnps@tandf.co.uk).
