Are you an employee of The University of Texas at Arlington? Yes No

Amount/value of this payment. $ _____

IMPORTANT: The value of any item you receive is considered taxable income. If prizes, awards or other non-wage payments you receive from UT Arlington exceed $ 600 in value in any one calendar year, the University is required to file a Form 1099 with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). For amounts less than $ 600, you are responsible for reporting the additional income but the University does not file Form 1099 with the IRS. If you are a UT Arlington employee, ALL payments will be included in your W-2 and reported as taxable income to the IRS.

Purpose of Form: A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report income paid to you.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to person requesting it (the requestor) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct,
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

You may be entitled to know what information UT Arlington collects concerning you. You may review and have UT Arlington correct this information according to procedures set forth in UT System Administration UTS139. The law is found in sections 552.021,552.023, and 559.004 of the Texas Government Code.

Disclosure of your Social Security Number (SSN) is required of you in order for the University of Texas at Arlington to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States, as mandated by Federal law. Further disclosure of your SSN is governed by the Public Information Act (Chapter 552 of the Texas
