NEW EMPLOYMENT & INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

PART TIME LEGAL ASSISTANT
Part time job (about 15 hours per week) with solo-practitioner lawyer in Arlington. The work schedule will be flexible for students. Job duties include general support functions to assist the lawyer and his paralegal in such activities as filing, document assembly, document preparation, errands and deliveries, and potentially assisting with overflow paralegal work. Pay depends on qualifications, but starting pay will be $10 per hour. Please send a resume and a SHORT email expressing an interest to arlingtontxlawyer@gmail.com. Students can expect to begin working as early as February 1st.

SPRING LEGAL INTERN
Arlington law firm Brandy Austin is looking to bring on spring interns for their highly successful internship program. Students will gain lots of practical experience in this unpaid opportunity. We have had lots of positive feedback from previous participants. Students must have the following qualifications:
- Have a passion for data and helping others with deep insights.
- Curiosity, persistence, and self-motivated are essential.
- Ability to combine multiple data sources for analysis and visualizations.
- Proficient written communication, verbal communication and presentation skills.
- Knows how to conduct market research, competitive intelligence, and key industry trends and transform this data into usable insights across the organization.
- Highly organized individual with successful multi-tasking skills.
- Independent time management skills.
- Professional and client-friendly presence.
The law office is looking to have qualified candidates beginning immediately. Interested students should send resumes to Amber.White@uta.edu.
INTERNSHIP COURSE FOR CREDIT
Students looking to gain legal experience for course credit should consider enrolling in HIST 4391-019. The course is designed to give students meaningful legal experience working for and with attorneys through Legal Aid of Northwest Texas. Students will meet with instructor 3 times during the spring semester, will be expected to complete 20 hours of volunteer work over the course of the semester and complete essay assignments. Any questions about this course or how to enroll, email Amber.White@uta.edu.

FREE MONEY FOR LAW SCHOOL
