New Internship Opportunity!

The law firm is willing to work around students’ class schedules with their most pressing need being students that can put hours in on afternoons and Fridays.

No special experience is required for this paid position. The File Clerk will go on runs for us to the post office, courthouses, client’s offices or homes, etc. Employee reimbursement will be provided for mileage. Employee will also have the opportunity to conduct court filing under the direction of the attorney and/or legal assistant. This opportunity is great introductory exposure to legal documents and the law office setting.

Opening is available until filled and employer is looking to hire immediately.

All interested candidates, please send resumes and references to Patty Reynolds at Spring Course Offerings

As you prepare to register for your Spring 2018 classes, consider taking one of the classes below.

HIST 4391-019: Undergraduate Conference—Independent Study in Legal Aid Service Learning
M 4:00—6:50 pm
Students will spend the semester learning the fundamentals of service learning by volunteering hours at Legal Aid of Northwest Texas. Students will gain practical knowledge and understanding of providing legal representation for indigent clients. Students will also be taking a closer look at 6th Amendment Right to Counsel through the lens of Gideon v. Wainwright. The class will be by permission only. Students must email gandre@uta.edu or amber.white@uta.edu to enroll.

HIST 4350: British Constitutional History
MWF 10:00-10:50 am
The development of the British constitution from its earliest beginnings to the present day, with special emphasis on the Anglo-Saxon institutions, the Norman constitutional development, the evolution of the major offices of the government, the development of Parliament, constitutional developments of the Stuarts, the Hanoverian constitution, the growth of democracy in the 19th and 20th centuries, and the imperial and commonwealth institutions.