CAMPUS RECREATION FIELDS COMPLEX

Check out the sports complex located next to the Clay Gould Baseball Stadium. Amenities include lighted softball fields, multipurpose fields, jogging trail, guest service building and restrooms. Informal Recreation hours will be available for members during the fall and spring semesters.

// INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The Intramural Sports program provides opportunities for participation in recreation, athletic and non-athletic activities. All currently enrolled students and members are eligible to participate in Intramural Sports. Individuals who wish to participate in a team or dual activity but do not have a team or partner may sign up for the free agent program. Intramural Sport activities include: Bowling, flag football, volleyball, indoor soccer, outdoor soccer, tennis, softball, racquetball, table tennis, billiards, badminton, and foosball. For a complete schedule of events, visit the Campus Recreation website. Officials are needed for flag football, indoor soccer/Outdoor soccer, softball, volleyball, basketball and floor hockey.

// ADAPTIVE RECREATION

The Adaptive Recreation program is a rewarding program that brings more disability recreational programs to the students with disabilities. The program offers an intramural program that included a soccer clinic for visually impaired students, and wheelchair divisions in billiards, table tennis, badminton, 4-on-4 football, 3-on-3 basketball, bocce, tennis doubles and more.

// SPORT CLUBS

The Sport Clubs program is designed to serve individual interests in different sports and recreational activities. These interests can be competitive or recreational. Some clubs may represent UT Arlington in intercollegiate competition and/or conduct intracollege activities such as practice, instruction and tournament play. Each club is student administered and run under the direction of the Department of Campus Recreation and the Office of Student Governance and Organizations. Some clubs include: soccer, volleyball, cycling, roller hockey, martial arts, aikido, triathlon, ultimate frisbee, and billiards.
