COURSE COMPONENTS

♦ Exámenes (Chapter Tests) (45%)
These are given only on the dates shown on the syllabus. You will be tested over material from the Student Activities Manual (SAM), the textbook, and class activities. Each test covers 2 chapters of textbook material. The Chapter 5-6 Test will be taken on the regularly scheduled day for the Final Exam that corresponds to your class. Reviews for these tests can be found on the UTA Spanish student blog: http://lowerlevelspanish.wordpress.com

♦ Pruebas/Controles (Quizzes) (10%)
There will be 10-12 grades. Quizzes may or may not be announced, at the discretion of the instructor. Missed quizzes cannot be made up under any circumstances. The 2 lowest quiz grades will be automatically dropped at the end of the semester IF the student has not been reported to Student Conduct during the course. (See Academic Integrity.)

♦ Discursos (Oral Presentations) (10%)
Students will give 2 oral presentations. Approximately one week before the presentation date, your instructor will announce the topic. The speeches must be memorized: no notes may be used or the grade received will be an automatic “0”. Each student must turn in a script for the presentation on the due date. The script should be a minimum of 12 sentences, typed and double-spaced, and must be stapled to a cover sheet which contains the grading rubric (see student blog). Students will be allotted a maximum time limit of 1.5 minutes to deliver the speech.

♦ Ensayos (In-Class Compositions) (10%)
Students will be required to write 2 in-class compositions. Approximately one week before the composition date, your instructor will announce the topic. The composition will be marked with the ECCO correction code, and the final grade will be based on the corrected version only. The ECCO correction code file can be found on the UTA blog. N.B.: The final version must be accompanied by the cover sheet (also on the UTA blog) and the original version hand-written in class with the instructor's ECCO corrections or no credit will be given.

♦ Diarios (Journal entries) (10%)
The student is required to hand write a one-page, single-spaced entry (corresponding approximately to standard 12-14 pt. font size) per chapter in a journal (use a Blue Book). The student must discuss an aspect of the theme covered in the chapter. Journal entry grades are based on completion of coherent entries and effort made to incorporate new vocabulary and grammar covered in each chapter. Specific due dates for handing in diarios are listed in the course calendar.

♦ SAM (Student Activities Manual - MySpanishLab) (10%)
Students must complete all assigned homework exercises online in My Spanish lab. The system will allow access after the due date (for practice) but will not record a grade. Files with course codes and registration instructions can be found on the student blog, as well as chapter study itineraries with a complete list of SAM activities for each chapter.

♦ Participation (5%)
Class participation will be assessed regularly throughout the semester (unannounced) and will be based on communicative activities carried out during class time. There will be a minimum of one class participation grade per chapter, although more participation grades may also be given at the discretion of the instructor. Students who are absent on the day of a class participation grade will receive a zero for participation on that day. Exemptions from class participation grades are only given to students who provide an excuse on university letterhead or who miss a class due to active duty military obligations.

♦ Signature Assignment- Ensayo-(take home composition) See Appendix for description and essay prompt.

♦ Recuperaciones (Make-up Policy)
The policy of the department is no make-ups. If a student provides proper written documentation for an excused absence occurring on the day of a chapter test (only for serious extenuating circumstances), the average of the other chapter test grades will be used as the score for the missed test, except for the final double-chapter test taken on the day of the final exam. Otherwise, missed tests are recorded as a zero. Only students who provide an excuse on university letterhead or who miss a test due to active duty military obligations will be allowed to make up a missed test.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR LOWER LEVEL SPANISH CLASSES
• A grade of “C” or better in Spanish 2313 is a prerequisite for Spanish 2314.
• Spanish 2314 will be conducted at least between 90-100 % in Spanish.
• Note that for every credit hour earned, a student should spend three hours per week working outside of class. Students enrolled in this course can expect to spend 9-12 hours per week of their own time in course-related study, which includes online work, writing assignments, homework, etc.

LATE REGISTRATION / CENSUS DATE / DROP POLICY
Students may drop or swap (adding and dropping a class concurrently) classes through self-service in MyMav from the beginning of the registration period through the late registration period which ends on January 18th. Students are required to make any course changes by the census date, January 30th. No transfers of courses or classes will be made after that date. After the late registration period, students must see their academic advisor to drop a class or withdraw. Undeclared students must see an advisor in the University Advising Center. It is the student's responsibility to officially withdraw if they do not plan to attend after registering. Students will not be automatically dropped for non-attendance. The last day to drop is Friday, March 29th. Repayment of certain types of financial aid administered through the University may be required as the result of dropping classes or withdrawing. For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships on this link: http://www.uta.edu/ses/fao

COURSE DOCUMENTS
All documents pertaining to this course (syllabus, online registration instructions, ECCO correction sheet, Chapter Test review files, etc.), are always available on the blog for Lower Level Spanish students: http://lowerlevelspanish.wordpress.com  Students are responsible for printing their own copies of these documents.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES IN THE CLASSROOM
Cell phones, iPods, iPads, laptops and any other electronic devices must be turned off and put away (not be left on the student's desk or within sight) during class time. Students refusing to adhere to this rule may be asked, at the discretion of the instructor, to leave the classroom.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES
UT Arlington provides a variety of resources and programs designed to help students develop academic skills, deal with personal situations, and better understand concepts and information related to their courses. Resources include tutoring, major-based learning centers, developmental education, advising and mentoring, personal counseling, and federally funded programs. For individualized referrals, students may visit the reception desk at University College (Ransom Hall), call the Maverick Resource Hotline at 817-272-6107, send a message to resources@uta.edu, or view the information at www.uta.edu/resources.

STUDENT FEEDBACK SURVEY
At the end of each term, students enrolled in classes categorized as lecture, seminar, or laboratory shall be directed to complete a Student Feedback Survey (SFS). Instructions on how to access the SFS for this course will be sent directly to each student through MavMail approximately 10 days before the end of the term. Each student’s feedback enters the SFS database anonymously and is aggregated with that of other students enrolled in the course. UT Arlington's effort to solicit, gather, tabulate, and publish student feedback is required by state law; students are strongly urged to participate. For more information, visit: http://www.uta.edu/sfs

LANGUAGE ACQUISITION CENTER (LAC)
The Language Acquisition Center (LAC), located on the third floor of Trimble Hall (rooms 303 – 307), offers audio, video and computer services for students of Spanish at UTA.

STUDENT QUESTIONS / CONCERNS
Should students have questions or concerns, they should first try to resolve these with their class instructor, then with Ms. Catherine Ortiz (cortiz@uta.edu), Supervisor of Lower Level Spanish. Only after having spoken with the instructor and Ms. Ortiz should the Spanish Section Coordinator, Dr. Sonia Kania (skania@uta.edu), be contacted in the event of unresolved issues.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
All students enrolled in this course are expected to adhere to the UT Arlington Honor Code as follows:
"I pledge, on my honor, to uphold UT Arlington’s tradition of academic integrity, a tradition that values hard work and honest effort in the pursuit of academic excellence. I promise that I will submit only work that I personally create or contribute to group collaborations, and I will appropriately reference any work from other sources. I will follow the highest standards of integrity and uphold the spirit of the Honor Code."

It is the philosophy of UTA that academic dishonesty is a completely unacceptable mode of conduct and will not be tolerated in any form. All persons involved in academic dishonesty will be disciplined in accordance with University regulations and procedures. Discipline may include suspension or expulsion from the University. "Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such act." Collusion is defined as collaborating with another, without authorization, when preparing an assignment. (Regents' Rules and Regulations, Series 50101, Section 2.2).

♦ Specific Department Policy Regarding Academic Integrity
The use of online translators, however limited, is included in the definition of scholastic dishonesty and is strictly forbidden. Any help obtained from another person on work submitted for a grade, or any help given to another student for the same, including but not limited to composing text, proof-reading, correcting or editing, is considered collusion and will also be reported as cheating. If a student has any doubts whatsoever as to what constitutes any form of scholastic dishonesty, s/he should consult the course instructor before submitting work which is subject to the afore-mentioned rules. Instructors may issue a preliminary warning for a first-time offense, but they are under no obligation to do so before reporting students directly to the Office of Student Conduct. N.B.: Students reported to Student Conduct for academic dishonesty will not qualify for dropping the 2 lowest quiz grades, regardless of the final adjudication in the case.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT
The University of Texas at Arlington is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of all federal equal opportunity legislation, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). All instructors at UT Arlington are required by law to provide "reasonable accommodations" to students with disabilities, so as not to discriminate on the basis of that disability. Any student requiring an accommodation for this course must provide the instructor with official documentation in the form of a letter certified by the staff in the Office for Students with Disabilities, University Hall 102. Only those students who have officially documented a need for an accommodation will have their request honored. Information regarding diagnostic criteria and policies for obtaining disability-based academic accommodations can be found at www.uta.edu/disability or by calling the Office for Students with Disabilities at (817) 272-3364.

♦ Note to students registered with the Office for Students with Disabilities
Students who are granted special testing accommodation must present their letter of accommodation from the OSD to their instructor immediately. If their letter permits accommodation in the ARC (Adaptive Resource Center), they will be expected to make a decision as to whether they wish to use this accommodation or not, and which assessments they will use it for if so (quizzes, tests, exams, in-class compositions, etc.), by signing the department declaration of preferred testing. All chapter tests/ quizzes/in-class essays must be scheduled one calendar week in advance of the testing date on the syllabus. Midterm & Final Exams must be scheduled two calendar weeks in advance of the testing date on the syllabus. Students failing to schedule testing in the ARC within this stipulated time frame will be expected to take their assessment (test, exam, etc.) in the classroom and within the standard time allowed for the class. Students who do not wish to use their testing accommodation(s) in the ARC must adhere to the same conditions for testing as all other students, as per the policies of the Department of Modern Languages. Students who have renounced the use of testing accommodation in the ARC may, at a later date, begin using their testing accommodations as long as they sign another statement which reflects their current testing preference. N.B.:
(a) At least one week's notice must be given if a student previously testing in the classroom decides to begin using testing accommodation in the ARC in order to allow time for scheduling of tests and timely delivery of materials to the ARC by the instructor; (b) no testing accommodation will be provided if the student does not present official documentation from the Office for Students with Disabilities.

E-CULTURE POLICY AND E-MAIL USE
• All e-mail correspondence to your instructor must originate from your UTA email account. EMAIL ORIGINATING FROM ANY OTHER ACCOUNT WILL BE IGNORED.

• When communicating with faculty by e-mail, it is important that students keep the following in mind:
  1) Be courteous: always use salutations and signatures. N.B.: "Sent from my iPhone" (or similar) is not acceptable as a signature and is considered to be disrespectful.
  2) For serious matters, use emails to facilitate a mutually agreeable time to meet. Email should not be used to avoid or replace personal interaction.
  3) Never use email to vent or to respond immediately to an emotional situation.
  4) Always remember that email creates a documentary record of one’s communication with others.

• There are two main reasons for using e-mail in this course:
  1) To set up a face-to-face appointment with your instructor if you wish to ask questions regarding course materials, clarification or concerns about your progress in the course.
  2) To inform the professor of absences.

• Do not use email for the following:
  1) Do not email your instructor asking him/her to tell you what you missed in class.
  2) Do not email your instructor asking him/her to email you class notes as an attachment.
  3) Do not email your instructor asking him/her to email you course handouts.
  4) Do not use email as a way to solve issues that should be resolved professionally during the instructor’s scheduled office hours.

SPRING 2013 FINAL EXAM

APPENDIX

SIGNATURE ASSIGNMENT-

This assignment meets the needs of both our language population and the assessment needs of the CORE CURRICULUM and complements the course content: language, culture, grammar and conversation.

The class discussions are an important part of this assignment and provide the substance for the composition.

This signature assignment requires students to write an academically appropriate short essay for an American Academic environment (introduction, thesis, development and conclusion) in the target language using proper syntax and vocabulary. This assignment meets several needs: The students’ need to 1) comprehend the case study (in the target language), 2) analyze and evaluate the various ethical and cultural positions in conflict, both personal and collective, and, 3) take into account UTA policy in their answer written in the target language. All four target areas are addressed: Critical Thinking, Communication, Personal and Social Responsibility. In addition, this assignment requires an open discussion on academic values, culturally determined behavior, ethics in face of expediency, acceptable conduct for an American academic setting and the consequences for unacceptable behavior.

The lesson grounding the assignment is in the target language:

- The instructor assigns readings to be read at home and before class in English (UTA Academic Honesty Policy, Honor Code, UTA Academic Honesty Pamphlet).
- In class and in a communicative student oriented language learning environment, brainstorming sessions provide the target language vocabulary needed to discuss the issues.
- Once the tools necessary to a discussion on the issue are available, the teacher organizes student discussion groups and gives them the topic—What is cheating? How is cheating defined in your countries? [this addresses one of the themes of the course – cultural perspectives and a very real problem in our classes] Experiences with peers cheating? Pros/Cons of cheating, etc.—
- Each group presents its findings.
- A synthesis of the various findings forms the core of the class discussion, and the teacher asks students to compare each group’s findings with the assigned reading. Together, they look at Honor Code and UTA policy on cheating with respect to the group discussions. The students are then given the prompt for the take home composition.

Signature Assignment: Composition on case study (2-3 pages double spaced typed, 12 pt, times or times roman)

In each of the case studies below, a student is faced with an ethical dilemma and is faced with a choice. Chose one of the situations below and discuss the student’s actions or the decision he or she must make (is she or he justified? Why or why not? What should the student do? Why? What are the consequences for the parties involved?)

Your composition should take into account not only the individual’s predicament but also consider the instructor and the other students in the class and their interests as a part of a community of learners. Take into consideration the readings and class discussions.

Structure: Introduction with thesis statement, development of argument and conclusion.

Choice of one:

1) John is enrolled in XXXX 2313 and it is mid-term time. His grades have not been good up until now. Between work and family obligations, he hasn’t had time to devote to his studies. He figures out that if he gets an A on this test, he will be able to make a B in the course. If not, he will probably earn a C at best, but more likely a D, which will prevent him from taking 2314 in the spring. He absolutely needs this for his major. He absolutely HAS to get an A on this test or risk getting a D in the course. Even worse, his overall GPA will fall below his major’s threshold. He tells himself that if he gets that A on the mid-term, then he will do the work it takes from now on to earn a good grade. After all, he is a good student and this is an exception. He decides that a little help will be necessary to ensure he gets that A, and he comes to the test with notes that he will use during the exam.

The mid-term is distributed and everyone begins the test. Jane is sitting next to John and notices that he has his backpack slightly open and positioned so that he can see some papers. He keeps looking down discretely at them. She is sure that he is cheating. Last semester John and Jane worked on a team project in a class that was difficult for her and without his help the team project would have received a failing grade. She isn’t sure what to do and feels badly about the situation. However, she studied hard and it doesn’t seem fair that he should use notes. Should she report him or let it go? What if the instructor grades on a curve? Jane is conflicted and isn’t sure of what she should do.

If Jane asked you for your opinion—considering both sides of the situation—what would you recommend? Why?
2) Sandy, an international student, has a composition due in XXX 2314. She left it for the last minute and was overwhelmed by the assignment. She did the reading before the due date but is having trouble writing what she wants to say. She didn’t mean to let it go so late. She looks on the internet for something that will help. She finds that the subject is covered in a lot of classes at other universities and there are quite a few sample papers posted. The answers are there and it seems like a waste of time to rewrite them. It wouldn’t sound as good if she wrote them herself. Besides, back home where Sandy grew up and went to secondary school, things like this were common practice and considered routine. So Sandy uses text from three different sites to compose the body of her paper. She writes the introduction, writes the transitions between the texts found online and is ready to hand the paper in the next day when it is due. Sandy’s instructor calls her in for an appointment to talk to Sandy about the paper. The instructor is disappointed in her student and asks Sandy to explain herself. Sandy explains her reasoning to her instructor. The instructor, after listening to Sandy, asks her to acknowledge that she plagiarized her paper. She isn’t sympathetic to Sandy’s situation at all. Sandy refuses and will not admit any wrongdoing. Both Sandy and the instructor consider the other unreasonable. What do you think? Why?

3) Chris has a composition assignment in the target language due this week. He left it for the last minute, because he was overwhelmed by the fact that it was a 250-word paper to be written in XXXX (the target language). In addition, he was just informed by his boss at his workplace that he has to work additional hours this weekend, because one of the employees is the hospital. Chris knows the syllabus states that online translators are not to be used in the creation of written work in the target language. But he is in a bind. He knows he writes much better in English than in XXXX. So he decides to use an online translator. Lots of students that he knows also use online translators. He tells himself that he will do it just this one time. After all, he is a good student, and he didn’t know that his co-worker would end up in the hospital, leaving him to cover for those hours and taking away the time he had planned on using to write the assignment. A friend even told him that there is a class in which they learn to use online translating software! He can’t lose his job and he can’t miss the assignment. In addition, he doesn’t want to let his coworkers down.

He writes his full composition in English, which he then copies it into Altavista Babelfish. He copies the results to a Word document, sees a couple of subject-verb errors, corrects them, prints out the document, and turns the assignment in on time.

Based on the facts described above, is using an online translator justifiable? Why or why not? What solutions if any could you have suggested to Chris?
