Graduate Student Orientation to Field Education

Revised 3/13/2017
You are embarking on the most challenging and most rewarding part of your social work education. Through this experience, you begin your transition from student to professional social worker.

Enjoy this time of growth!
Field Structure

Student

Field Instructor

Field Liaison/Seminar Instructor
Field Instructor

• Your agency-based instructor who is responsible for orienting you to the agency as well as assigning and supervising your learning tasks

• Responsible for working with you on your schedule

• Responsible for working with you on your learning contract

• Responsible for meeting with you weekly for at least one hour of case review, teaching, and discussion

• Responsible for reviewing and signing all field paperwork
Field Instructor Con’t

- Responsible for assessing your strengths and challenges
- Responsible for assigning micro and macro tasks that provide valuable learning experiences
- Responsible for developing corrective action plans for you as needed
- Responsible for maintaining contact with liaison as needed
- Responsible for completing mid-term and final evaluations
Field Liaison

• Your UTA seminar instructor and liaison with your Field Instructor

• Responsible for teaching your seminar class and reviewing your field cases and other assigned tasks

• Responsible for communicating with you about concerns, triumphs, and challenges in your placement; offering consultation and support when necessary

• Responsible for communicating at least twice per term with your Field Instructor and also for mediating any issues between you and the FI
Field Liaison Con’t: Paperwork

- Review and sign the learning contract.
- Review the mid-term evaluation.
- Review and sign the final evaluation.
- Assign the course grade for field in consultation with the Field Instructor.
- Submit all paperwork (learning contract, supervision logs, and time sheets) to the Field Office by the last day of the semester.
First-Year Graduate Student

- You must complete 480 total hours whether that is over 1 semester or 2 (split vs. block) Please keep careful record on your time log.

- You must set your schedule with your Field Instructor and keep your hours as scheduled.

- You must download the “Learning Contract” from the field website and work with your FI to complete it.

- You must submit the learning contract and all other paperwork to the liaison with your signature and that of your FI.
First-Year Graduate Student Con’t

• You must learn and uphold agency policy, licensing regulations, laws, and professional ethics.

• You are expected to maintain your schedule as agreed upon with the FI.
  – You must make up missed hours (e.g., holidays, illness).
  – Always notify your FI if you will be absent or late.

• You are expected to accept tasks as assigned.

• You are expected to accept feedback and correction as part of your learning experience.
First-Year Graduate Student
Con’t

• You are responsible for attending weekly supervision prepared with a list of topics on your “weekly supervision log.” In short, you must actively participate in supervision.

• You are responsible for clearly communicating any concerns or questions directly to your Field Instructor.

• If your concerns are not addressed or you need assistance, communicate with your liaison to enlist support or direction.

• You are welcome to bring concerns to the field office if issues cannot be resolved by the field instructor and liaison.
Professionalism

• Dress
  – Apparel should be modest, clean, and appropriate for a professional social worker.
  – No flip-flops, nothing too short, too tight, too revealing, nothing your grandmother wouldn’t like.

• Deportment
  – Use professional language (no swearing, slang, off-color comments).
  – Be respectful in language, behavior, and attitude.
  – Follow the above directions even if your Field Instructor or others in the office do not.

• Office Politics
  – Do NOT participate. No gossip. No taking sides. Be nice to everyone.
Your Relationship with the FI

• The FI is your instructor
  – Follow directions; accept tasks willingly.
  – You may always respectfully ask questions for clarity.

• Boundaries
  – Avoid over-sharing personal information with your FI.
  – Even as your FI treats you as a colleague, you are colleagues, not “friends.”

• Ethics
  – If you believe that you are being asked to do something unethical, you may address your concerns with the FI and/or the liaison.
Your Relationship with Clients

• Follow the guidelines and policies of the agency
  – Be respectful and kind.
  – Abide by professional ethics, particularly confidentiality.
  – When you are not sure what to do or say, seek advice.

• Boundaries
  – NEVER share personal information with clients.
  – Even as your client treats you as a friend, you are not in an equal relationship. You are not “friends” although you do offer them unconditional positive regard.

• Diversity
  – Clients may stretch your knowledge of culture, ethnicity, race and socio-economic status. Maintain professionalism, and use your supervision to improve your capacity to understand and respect all clients.
A Positive Practicum Experience

- Increased Competence
- Increased Confidence
- Commitment to Social Work
- Ability to practice in a social service organization
- Ability to apply theory to social work practice
- Ability to Apply Social Work Values & Ethics in a Social Work Context
Review of Required Documentation

- Learning Contract
- Weekly Supervision Logs
- Time Sheets
- Mid –Term Performance Evaluation (on E- intern)
- Final Performance Evaluation (on E-Intern)
- All are available on the field website:
Field Office Information

Suite 301, Social Work Complex, Bldg A.
(on the opposite end of the hallway from academic advising)
Field Office Information

- Jane Hickerson, Ph.D., LCSW
  Email: jhickerson@uta.edu
  Phone: 817-272-3751

- Amy Lopez, LMSW
  Advanced MSW Field Advisor III
  Email: amy.lopez@uta.edu
  Phone: 817-272-6194

- Kristen Terry, LMSW
  BSW & Foundation MSW Field Advisor III
  Email: Kristen.terry@uta.edu
  Phone: 817-272-1583
Field Office Information

- Susan Terry
  Administrative Assistant
  sterry@uta.edu

- General inquiries
  sswfield@uta.edu
  817-272-3533
Have a Fabulous Semester!

Thank you for your service in social work.
Enjoy your learning experience!