The School of Social Work at the University of Texas at Arlington invites applications for a one-year postdoctoral fellowship to work under the direction of Drs. Maxine Davis and Diana Padilla. UTA is a growing Carnegie Research-1 “highest research activity” powerhouse committed to life-enhancing discovery, innovative instruction, and caring community engagement. Post-doctoral fellows will assist with a broad range of research projects related to intimate partner violence perpetration and/or dating violence amongst communities of color, specifically, working on the development of instruments. The fellow will further their research and training agenda through formal mentorship and other career development activities under the direction and mentorship of two faculty members with expertise in community engaged research (i.e. CBPR, PAR).

Job Duties: Job duties will vary depending on the needs of the project. Tasks will include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Develop and implement mentoring plan
- Prepare manuscripts
- Present research at local and national conferences
- Assist with writing and preparation of grants
- Other duties as assigned

Position Details and Eligibility Requirements: One position available for a 12-month appointment. Salary is competitive with full benefits.

To be eligible, applicants must

- have earned a Ph.D. by date of hire in Social Work, Statistics, Public Health, Psychology, Criminal Justice or related fields;
- have strong experience in advanced statistics, particularly Structural Equation Modeling and ability to conduct psychometric measurement testing;
- reside in the DFW area during the appointment period;
- have a demonstrated capacity to conduct independent research and have a proven record of scholarly publications;
- have the ability to work collaboratively and the capacity to critically reflect upon and analyze research in progress.

Preferred Qualifications

- Research or practice experience in the following areas:
  - Working with Latino/a and/or Black American populations
  - Community-based research
  - Intimate partner violence and/or dating violence
- Knowledge of mixed methodologies and measurement development

To Apply: Complete the online Post Doctoral Fellowship Application. For consideration for this position, please submit (1) a cover letter including a description of the applicant’s research agenda, experience and interests, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) a writing sample, and (4) contact information for three references.
You will be contacted via e-mail if you are selected for an interview. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the Society for Social Work and Research (SSWR) Annual Conference. Application review will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled with September 2019 as the preferred start date. NOTE: Be sure to select Dr. Davis and Dr. Padilla on your application to indicate your interest in this position.

Questions regarding the position or the application process may be directed to sswresearch@uta.edu.