The student hired for this position will be working under the direction of Dr. Diana Padilla on a project for the Texas Council on Family Violence funded project: "Services Access of Intimate Partner Violence in Texas: An Expansion". The students will support the study team in recruiting and interviewing Spanish speaking survivors of domestic violence at UT Southwestern and John Peter Hospital sites. The students will be conducting in person or via phone semi-structured Spanish interviews with the selected participants, and will also transcribe and translate the data collected in the interviews.

Job Duties: Job duties will vary depending on the needs of the project. Tasks will include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Work directly with research participants
- Collect and maintain research data
- Establish and implement data management protocols
- Participate in meetings
- Transcription and Translation

Position Details and Eligibility Requirements: There are two positions available - open to MSW students. Students do not need a recommendation letter from faculty - may just provide name (preferably for professor who taught their research course). GRAs must be flexible, highly motivated, and able to work independently or collaboratively on tasks as needed.

To be eligible, students must

- Current student of the MSW program, B.A., B.S., or BSW required
- Proficient in Spanish language. The student must be able to communicate fluently in Spanish, in order to conduct, translate to English, and transcribe interviews.
- Interest in a career in research and/or mental health for underserved populations
- Knowledge of violence and domestic violence issues, particularly for minority groups is preferable.
- Excellent writing and communication skills.
- Some experience conducting clinical or research work with Latinos/as, or other minority groups.
- Comfort approaching potential study participants and inviting their participation

Compensation: This position is a paid position at $15/hour for 10 hours/week.

To Apply: Complete the online GRA Application form, attach a current resume, and provide a faculty letter of reference. You will be contacted via your UTA e-mail address if you are selected for an interview. NOTE: Be sure to select Dr. Padilla on your application to indicate your interest in this position.

Questions regarding the position or the application process may be directed to adamev@uta.edu.