Learning Outcomes

1. Practical Competence
   Communication Skills
   Time Management
   Professionalism
   Pursuance of Goals
   Flexibility and Adaptability
   Students participating in Student Affairs programs and services will acquire and use professional competencies that can assist in achieving success in the classroom, personal growth, and career goals.

2. Appreciation of Cultural Differences
   Global Understanding
   Social Responsibility
   Civic Engagement
   Students participating in Student Affairs programs and services will have a sense of social responsibility and value civic engagement.

3. Critical Thinking Skills
   Potential Consequences of Decision Making Skills
   Decision Making
   Effective Reasoning
   Reflective Skills
   Creative Thinking
   Objective Thinking
   Students participating in Student Affairs programs and services will be able to use experiences to identify consequences, solve problems, and make sound decisions.

4. Collaboration
   Leadership Skills
   Relationship Development
   Teamwork
   Students participating in Student Affairs programs and services will demonstrate strong interpersonal skills and have respectful relationships with others.

5. Ethics and Integrity
   Personal Identity
   Self-Awareness
   Motivation
   Initiative
   Students participating in Student Affairs programs and services will express a strong sense of self-awareness and personal responsibility.