March Meeting

Your Financial Life After College By Dawn Nguyen

Your Financial Life After College

Have you thought about your life after college? Finding the "perfect" job with great pay or is it marrying the man of your dreams and having two kids and a dog? What about your financial life? How are you planning for your financial future? Dawn Nguyen, a Financial Advisor from American Express, offers advice about your financial future. Dawn will be discussing how to set up a budget, paying your loans, saving for retirement, investing, and financing those wonderful vacations to exotic locations each year.

Have you considered holding an officer position in SWE?

Now is your chance to enhance your people, organizational, leadership and communication skills.

March 9th- April 11th, SWE will be accepting nominations for the following positions:

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Professional Public Relations
- Organizational Public Relations
- Newsletter Editor
- Webmaster

Stop by the SWE Office to make your nominations.

Region C Conference is Almost Here!

Conference is a great way to network and meet other SWE members from Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Mississippi. This year at Region C Conference development workshops will cover Professionalism, Leadership, Strategic Planning, Interviewing and Resume skills. If you are graduating this Spring or Fall, it is important for you to begin the process of job searching and Region C Conference will be a great place to start.

Please be sure that your membership dues are current to ensure that you are properly charged student member rates for the conference. Also, a carpool will be available for those wishing to participate, for more information on car rental fees stop by the SWE office or see an officer.
