

▶ Featured Profiles

"Starting at Fidelity as a financial representative provides one with a well-rounded foundation making it easy to navigate to different business units for future career paths."

- Noel Dixon, Financial Representative

"By interning at Fidelity, I am able to gain valuable experience in an area that interests me. I also have the opportunity to interact with a variety of clients on a daily basis. Whether it is working with our recruiters, managers, or the colleges, I am able to understand the business better as well as see where my work impacts the business as a whole."

- Grace Ma, College Relations Co-op

▶ Featured Profiles

"Fidelity has provided an arena for me to further develop my financial services knowledge in a variety of different areas. Because the firm has presence in many varying facets of the financial services industry, I am able to gain valuable knowledge and experience in money management, brokerage, trading, and beyond."

- Todd Rakow, Business Analyst

"I have the opportunity to work in a world-class company with a valued and respected Audit team. I am developing my analytical, problem-solving and communication skills, but what I most enjoy is really making a difference."

- Stephanie Miles, Audit Analyst I

▶ Featured Profiles

*"The mentor program offered to all new Fidelity employees helped me adapt quickly to the transition from college to the working world."
- Rachel Kushner, Trust Accountant*

*"I selected Fidelity because I was impressed by their commitment to professionalism and ethics. They have great benefits, a friendly working atmosphere, and enough diversity in positions to allow one to pursue one's interests while growing one's skills."
- Christopher Yu, Associate Software Engineer/Developer*

