Internship Positions in Office of State Representative Victoria Neave

The Mesquite District Office and Austin Capitol Office of State Representative Victoria Neave are accepting applications for part-time, unpaid internship positions for the Summer 2018 and Fall 2018 semesters. This is a great opportunity to get valuable experience in a fast-paced office. The Legislative Interns will research past and current legislation, coordinate special projects, greet guests, answer phones, attend events, and assist with other office duties as needed. The Communication Interns will help draft press releases, work on graphics, and help with videos and events.

Qualifications: Applicants should have excellent organizational and communication skills, a strong work ethic, and an active interest in government, politics, public policy, law, or a related area. Applicants should be able to commit at least 15 hours per week to the internship.

Details: Internship positions are available in both our district office, which is located at 317 S. Galloway, Suite B., Mesquite, TX 75149 and our Austin Capitol Office, which is located in room E1.216 in the Texas Capitol.

To apply, students should send his or her resume and cover letter to our District Director, Esseiny Alanis, at Esseiny.Alanis@house.texas.gov. Cover letters should include the hours the student is available to work and if he/she is applying for a position in the District or Capitol office. Applications must be submitted by June 15, 2018, and will be reviewed on a rolling basis. If you have any questions, please call our office at 972-288-9438.

State Representative Victoria Neave Offers $4,000 Scholarship Opportunity for Students of House District 107 via Texas Armed Services Scholarship Program

State Representative Victoria Neave is offering a scholarship opportunity for students that reside in House District 107 which encompasses parts of East Dallas, Garland, and Mesquite, Texas via the Texas Armed Services Scholarship Program. The scholarship, administered by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, allows students planning to serve in the military after college to receive up to $4,000 for the 2018-2019 academic year after receiving a nomination from a State Legislator and meeting certain criteria.

"I am honored to offer this $4,000 scholarship opportunity to students from House District 107 and hope to help a student from our community who has a desire to serve our country in the U.S. Armed Services achieve his or her dreams," says State Representative Victoria Neave. "We have bright, phenomenal students in our community who will undoubtedly make a positive impact on our society, and we look forward to reviewing scholarship applications."

Students in House District 107 with strong academic achievement, solid leadership experience, a commitment to community service, and who meet the THECB's requirements are encouraged to apply. The TASSP Scholarship program encourages students to become commissioned officers in any branch of the armed services of the United States or members of the Texas Army National Guard, the Texas Air National Guard, the Texas State Guard, the United States Coast Guard or the United States Merchant Marine.

To be eligible to receive the scholarship, applicants must meet the TASSP Requirements by enrolling in a Texas public or private accredited institution of higher education, committing to four years of training through the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) program and planning to enter the armed services upon graduation. Nominees must also meet two of the following four academic criteria at the time of application:

1. Be on track to graduate high school or have already graduated with the Distinguished Level of Achievement Plan or International Baccalaureate Program;
2. Have a high school GPA of 3.0 or higher;
3. Achieve an SAT score of 1070 or ACT score of 23; or
4. Be ranked in the top one-third of the high school graduating class.

To be considered for the scholarship, applicants must submit a resume, statement of interest, and three references to katy.womble@house.texas.gov by July 13, 2018. Students are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. For more information, call (972) 288-9438.

If you have any questions about the internship or the scholarship, please do not hesitate to contact our Mesquite District Office at 972-288-9438 or District107.Neave@house.texas.gov.
