KINE 2320 Introduction to Athletic Training
Fall 2003

CASE STUDY GUIDELINES

Formatting Guidelines
1. Each case study should be a minimum of 2 pages, typed double-spaced with 1” margins all around, using 12 pt Times New Roman font.

2. Each case-study report should include the following information
   a. Personal data/medical history
      1. subject demographic data (age, sex, race, etc.)
      2. mechanism of injury, prior injuries/problems
   b. Signs and symptoms (include assessment procedures that were used to evaluate this injury/condition)
   c. Differential Diagnosis (injury or condition being treated)
   d. Clinical course (treatment procedures, surgical or non-surgical, modalities used, rehab exercises, changes in participation levels, etc.)
   e. Return to play criteria

3. Body of Case Study Report
   a. Type the title of your case study (see example below) at the top of the paper in bold.
   b. On the next line, indent 3 spaces and put your name (Last name, then initials)
   c. Double space and begin the body of your case study flush left with no indentations. Structure your report within headings, with headings marked in bold.

4. Title Page

   Title of Case Study (in proper format)

   Name

   KINE 2320 Introduction to Athletic Training
   Fall 2003

   Case Study #
   Date submitted