Bylaws Updated: December 2, 2010 by unanimous vote

Changes ratified in December 2010:

Originally proposed in April 2009 -
- Changed name of organization to UT Arlington Advising Association without change to acronym. (UT Arlington is the official university name when external communications is involved.)
- In order to create consistency, changed text to Executive Committee throughout document where it had previously read Executive Board and Executive Committee.
- Corrected spelling/grammatical/formatting errors throughout document.
- Changed membership duration from (September 1 to August 31) to (June 1 to May 31) to reflect transition of Executive Committee duties.
- Removed Financial and Election information from Article IX and added Articles X Financial Records and Article XI Elections
- Added Article IX, 1.
- Moved of executive committee members from section from Article IX to Article VII
- Added Article VII, Sec 2.
Proposed in December 2010 -

- Article III Section 2 – eliminated Associate Membership. Non-members may attend meetings as guests.
- Article V Section 1 – specified that the Recording Secretary drafts notes, etc.
- Article VII Section 1 – established President Elect as a voting member of the executive committee.
- Article VII A and F – made website updates part of the Historian’s duties, revamped wording to match current practice.
- Article VII C – Vice-president may be called upon to fill a vacant President or President-Elect position.
- Article VII D – revamped wording to match current practice and duties of Treasurer.
- Article VII E – Recording Secretary will draft notes only for Executive and other Committee Meetings, not monthly lunch meetings.
- Article VII F - Text changed to match current practice and to include website updates to Historian duties.
- Article IX Section 1 – removed text on filling vacancies since it is covered in a separate section.
- Article IX Section 2 – removed wording on approval of bylaw changes since this is covered in Article VIII.
- Article X Section 2 – changed wording on financial records. It is now the treasurer’s responsibility to keep records; they are no longer stored in the UAC.
- Article XI Sections 2 and 3 – wording changed to allow for online balloting.
- Article XI Section 5 – redundant wording removed on position vacancies. Also added a procedure to elect the President if the President Elect position becomes vacant and is filled by the Committee.
