Applications are accepted after the published priority date for each term, but for guaranteed consideration of admission, submit your application and associated materials by the priority date. It is important to apply well in advance of your intended start date to be eligible for program-specific funding opportunities such as assistantships and fellowships. Keep in mind that departmental application processing times vary greatly and some programs require applications up to one year in advance.

For program-specific requirements and merit-based funding opportunities, visit the University Catalog (catalog.uta.edu) or contact your intended program graduate advisor. In order to qualify for maximum grant funding, you must submit your FAFSA, turn in all required documents, and be admitted by the dates above. For information on financial aid opportunities, visit the Office of Financial Aid's website (uta.edu/fao). For information about scholarship opportunities, visit the scholarship's office website (uta.edu/scholarships).
