

The Archer Fellowship Program at The University of Texas at Arlington

The Archer Fellowship Program provides University of Texas System undergraduate students the opportunity to live, learn, and intern in Washington, D.C., for a fall or spring semester. Are you interested in how policy impacts your area of study or future profession? Do you have a passion for policy and/or public service? Learn more about this unparalleled educational and professional opportunity by attending an information session. Deadline: February 15, 2019.

FALL 2018 INFORMATION AND Q&A SESSIONS

Thursday, September 20

Information Session • 10:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m.

Information Session • 1:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Q & A Session • 2:00-3:00 p.m.

Carolyn A. Barros Reading Room in the Honors College (100 College Hall)

Tuesday, October 9

Information Session • 11:00 a.m.-12:00 noon

Q & A Session • 2:00-3:00 p.m.

Carolyn A. Barros Reading Room in the Honors College (100 College Hall)

Monday, November 12

Information Session • 3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Q & A Session • 4:00-5:00 p.m.

Carolyn A. Barros Reading Room in the Honors College (100 College Hall)

For more information, visit archercenter.org

Need special accommodations? Contact Perri Turner at pturner@uta.edu.