Using the Echo360 Lecture Capture equipment in the classroom

To view instructions for a classroom, please click on the room number below:

ERB 131

For classroom support in these rooms please call 817-272-1449 or email classroomsupport@uta.edu.
1. Tap on the Crestron controller to wake it from its idle mode.
2. Select “Displays”
3. Select Projector “ON” turn on the projector.

4. You can use this panel to control the projector by turning it on or off, switch display to laptop(connected via VGA cable), switch display to document camera, or even hide video
   a. To use a Laptop, connect the laptop to the VGA cable available and select “Laptop” On the Crestron control panel
   b. To use the Document Camera, select the “Doc Cam” available on the Crestron control panel and power on the document camera.

Using Document Camera

  Power Button: Turn on the document camera
  INT/EXT Button: Switch between the document camera view and a laptop connected to Document camera via a VGA cable
  AF: Auto Focus button; Resets focus of camera
  Lamp: Turn on the internal light to view text better