

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT ARLINGTON EMPLOYEE ROUNDHOUSE SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose

The employees of The University of Texas at Arlington wish to establish a scholarship to provide tuition assistance for employees and employees' dependents.

Awards

The distribution of the award will be accomplished through University accounts and will be applied to tuition, fees, and books. Four employee scholarships and four dependent scholarships will be awarded; number and amount of awards may vary due to availability of funds.

Eligibility

Recipients must be benefits-eligible employees of UTA for at least one year prior to the beginning of the term for which the scholarship is applied or the son, daughter or spouse of a UTA employee who has been benefits-eligible for at least one year prior to the beginning of the term for which the scholarship is applied. Recipients must be eligible for admission to The University of Texas at Arlington or a student continuing in good standing at UTA. Eligible students may be enrolled in any of the baccalaureate degree or graduate degree programs offered by the University. The scholarship cannot be applied to continuing education programs. Students may re-apply each semester.

Factors in Selection: Employee Award

A letter of recommendation from the candidate's supervisor and demonstrated academic achievement will be the primary selection criteria. The need for financial support will also be given consideration.

Factors in Selection: Dependent Award

- Letter of recommendation from UTA employee.
- Entering freshman must have a minimum test score of SAT 1000/ACT 22 and be in the top 25% of the graduating class; new transfer students must have a cumulative transfer GPA of 3.0 on at least 24 college hours; UTA continuing students must have a cumulative UTA GPA of 3.0 on at least 24 UTA hours.
- Need for financial support will be a consideration.

Administration

The selection and award process will be administered by the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid. Applicants must complete an application form furnished by the UTA Scholarship Office.
