SEXUAL HARASSMENT

“unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature.”
Quid Pro Quo Harassment

- Asking for sexual favors of some kind in exchange for special treatment in the workplace or classroom.

- It can be the threat of ill-treatment if the complainant will not consent to sexual favors.

- The “sexual conduct” may be non-verbal, verbal, or physical, and the “asking” may be direct or implied.

- It is unlawful whether or not the complainant objects or gives in to avoid the harm.
Hostile Environment

Exists when sexual harassment is sufficiently severe or pervasive to deny or limit the individual’s ability to participate in or benefit from the University’s programs or activities or an employee’s terms and conditions of employment.

Reasons for Harassment

51% of men, 31% of women admit to harassing

- I thought it was funny (59%)
- I thought the person liked it (32%)
- It’s just a part of school life/its no big deal (30%)
- I wanted a date with the person (17%)
- My friends encouraged/pushed me into do it (7%)
- I wanted the person to think I had power over them (4%)

Hill, C., & Kearl, H (2005) Drawing the Line Sexual Harassment at School
Gender-Based Harassment

Nonsexual, unwelcome conduct based on the a person’s actual or perceived sex, including harassment based on gender identity, gender expression, and nonconformity with gender stereotypes.
SEXUAL ASSAULT

“Sex Act” without consent

- Non-Consensual Sexual Penetration (rape)
- Sexual Contact (fondling)
CONSENT

- Informed, reciprocal, voluntary, mutually understandable;
- Consent to one act does not imply consent to another;
- Past consent does not imply future consent;
- Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another;
Consent (continued)

- Consent can be withdrawn at any time
- A current or previous dating or sexual relationship by itself is not sufficient to constitute consent
- Absence of physical force, threats, intimidation, coercion
- Never present for minors or incapacitated persons
Sexual Assault on Campus

- Nearly 16% of women in college experienced attempted or completed sexual assault before entering college.

- 79% of rape victims experience their first rape when they are under the age of 25; 40% before the age of 18.

Sexual Assault on Campus

- According to the US Department of Justice, less than 5% of college rapes are reported to the police.

- College students are the most vulnerable to rape during the first few weeks of their first and second year.

- Alcohol is the most commonly used “weapon.”

- Alcohol is involved in the majority of incidents.

- 97% of alcohol related sexual assaults, both persons were drinking.

STALKING

- When a person engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress.

- Persons 18-24 (average age of college students) experienced the highest rates of stalking victimization.

Katrina Baum, Shannan Catalano, Michael Rand, and Kristina Rose, “Stalking Victimization in the United States”
Stalking Conduct

- Repeated, unwanted, intrusive, and frightening communications from the perpetrator by phone, mail, and/or email.
- Repeatedly leaving or sending victim unwanted items or presents.
- Following or laying in wait for the victim at places such as home, school, work, or recreation place.
- Making direct or indirect threats to harm the victim, the victim’s children, relatives, friends, or pets.
Stalking Conduct

• Damaging or threatening to damage property

• Posting information or spreading rumors about the victim on the internet, in a public place, or by work of mouth

• Obtaining personal information about the victim by accessing public records, using the internet, hiring private investigators, going through the victim’s garbage, following the victim, contacting the victim’s friends, family, work or neighbors, etc.

• 40% of students have been cyberstalked

UTA SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY

Handbook of Operating Procedures 5-513

- Applies to everyone: administrators, faculty, staff, students, visitors and applicants for employment;
- Can apply on or off University property if it potentially affects the complainant’s education or employment with the university;
- Applies regardless of gender, gender identity, sexual orientation;
- Complaint may be made by or against a third party, verbally or in writing.

Goal is to provide a safe learning and working environment for ALL
Reporting Obligations

Who are “Responsible Employees”?

- A University employee who has the duty to report incidents of sexual misconduct to the Title IX Office or an employee whom an individual could reasonably infer has this authority.

- Includes: all administrators, faculty, teachers, instructors, coaches, supervisory staff, resident life directors/advisors, graduate teaching assistants/athletics staff.

- Exception: any employee with confidentiality obligations (CAPs, Health Services).

- Failure to report could result in disciplinary action.

*Responsible Employee Resource Guide: www.uta.edu/titleix/
Reporting Obligations

What to report?

Concerns involving real or perceived: discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual assault/violence, stalking, domestic/dating violence, and retaliation must be reported immediately.

see something

hear something

know something

say something!
Reporting Obligations

Reporting Obligations

How to report?

- Email
- Phone
- In person
- On-line reporting form www.uta.edu/titleix/
Confidential or Anonymous Requests

- Be sensitive to the request but do not promise confidentiality;
- Inform complainant you are required to report;
- The University will do its best to honor the complainant's wishes, but may not be able to maintain confidentiality;
- Only Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) and University Health Services can provide confidentiality.

Confidential or anonymous complaints may greatly limit the University's ability to stop the alleged conduct, investigate or take action.
How to Help a Victim/Complainant

- Explain that the University takes these situations seriously. Remind them of the Sexual Misconduct Policy HOP 5-513 and Title IX website www.uta.edu/titleix;

- Encourage and explain how to seek medical assistance;

- Encourage and explain how to seek support from campus resources (RVSP, CAPS, UTAPD Crime Victim Services);

- Encourage reporting to law enforcement;

- NEVER make any promises or guarantees;

- Do not judge based on a victim/complainant’s reaction, demeanor or behavior.
Interim and Ongoing Assistance

Individual services offered as appropriate to either or both parties before, during and/or after an investigation or while an investigation is pending. This may include:

- Counseling and other support services
- Extensions of time or other course-related adjustments
- Modifications of work or class schedules
- Campus escort and transportation services
- Restrictions on contact between the parties
- Changes in work or housing locations
- Leaves of absence
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of campus
- Other similar accommodations
Resources and Investigation

- Resources and support services offered:
  - Relationship Violence and Sexual Assault Prevention Program (RVSP)
  - Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) (24 hour crisis hotline)
  - UTAPD Crime Victim Services
  - Off campus resources and support
  - Employee Assistance Program (EAP)

- Investigator is assigned and begins investigation:
  - Prepares report with findings and recommendations
  - Both parties provided opportunity to review and submit written comments
  - Standard of proof used is preponderance of evidence:
    - “It is more likely than not a violation of policy occurred”
Discipline and Appeals

- Discipline
  - Employees: Regents Rules, University policies for discipline
  - Students: Office of Student Conduct
  - Both parties are notified of the outcome

- Appeals
  - Both parties may appeal findings of investigation or disciplinary action
Retaliation

Any administrator, faculty member, student or employee who knowingly and intentionally retaliates in any way against an individual who has brought a complaint under this policy, participated in an investigation or disciplinary process is subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal or separation from the University.
University’s Title IX Obligations

• When an institution knows or reasonably should know of possible sexual harassment, it must take immediate and appropriate steps to investigate or otherwise determine what occurred.

• If sexual harassment to include sexual violence has occurred, the institution must take prompt and effective steps reasonably calculated to:

  Stop the violence
  Prevent recurrence
  Remedy the offense
