Housing, Meals and What to Bring:

Athletes receive a confirmation letter upon receipt of their registration. This letter details what individual items are needed, where to report and a daily schedule of workout sessions. Housing for resident campers is in the Arlington Hall residence hall on campus. Rooms are double occupancy and roommate requests can be made on the camper registration form. Residence halls are supervised by UT Arlington staff and camp counselors. Meals are provided in the campus dining hall. Snacks are available for purchase in the campus market. All campers need to bring bedding for a twin bed, sheets / sleeping bag, pillow, towels & washcloth.

Directions to Arlington and the UT Arlington campus are available upon request. Players flying to camp should make arrangements to fly into the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport. Transportation to and from the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport is provided. Flight and transportation schedules need to be communicated with athlete registrations.
