CAN WE TALK?

DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS WITH UNDERREPRESENTED PEOPLE OF COLOR: SENSE OF BELONGING AND OBSTACLES TO STEM FIELDS

The College of Science is hosting a series of events to open a dialogue about belonging and obstacles to STEM fields for underrepresented people of color and marginalized communities. The events center around viewings of two movies from film maker DR. KENDALL MOORE and will follow up with three moderated conversations in the week after the movie screenings.

CONVERSATION 1
OPEN DIALOGUE
March 29 - 12-1 p.m. (CT)
Open discussion and reflections about the films.
Intended for everyone.

CONVERSATION 2
SUPPORT & SENSE OF BELONGING IN STEM
March 31 - 12-1 p.m. (CT)
Issues facing marginalized groups in science.
Discussion limited to students, staff and faculty who identify as black, brown and indigenous URM groups.

CONVERSATION 3
FACULTY ISSUES & WHITE ALLY-SHIP
April 2 - 12-1 p.m. (CT)
Faculty and Post-docs open discussion and white ally-ship
Discussion limited to Faculty and Post-docs.

MORE INFO
UTA.EDU/SCIENCE/EVENTS