MAVERICK OF THE WEEK: JOANNA GLOVER

Joanna is an MSW student specializing in Aging. She is a Graduate Research Assistant, a Legal Advocacy Intern, and a Community Outreach/Prevention Intern. Joanna is a Spanish and Japanese speaker who serves as a Mental Health Resource Line (MHRL) peer at Presbyterian Hospitals of Dallas and others within the Dallas-Plano area to help support and refer patients to appropriate services. Joanna also helps the Dallas Area Rape Crisis Center provide information, crisis intervention, and referrals. Phone calls are transferred to your cell phone, and Joanna is available to provide support, counseling, and resources to survivors of sexual assault. Joanna is a full-time graduate student and part-time MHRL peer. Joanna is trained to offer support and help with resources and referrals to those in need. Joanna provides resources, referrals, and support for both survivors and non-survivors who may need help. Joanna is also trained in suicide prevention and prevention of self-harm. Joanna is available to help with counseling, support, and resources. Finally, Joanna uses her legal skills to help survivors of sexual assault and other crimes find justice through the legal system. Joanna helps survivors find resources and support, and she provides guidance and support to help them feel safe and supported. Joanna is a Master of Social Work student at the University of Texas at Arlington (UTA). She is a member of the Gerontology Organization and the Student Government Association (SGA). Joanna is passionate about helping others and making a positive impact on their lives. Joanna is a dedicated and helpful graduate student who is always willing to help others. Joanna is a valuable member of the UTA community and a true Maverick of the Week. Joanna is a dedicated volunteer and an excellent representative of the UTA community. Joanna is a true Maverick of the Week.